

1	Defended our nets from the world in 1966.	6/5	Gordon Banks
2	When its 'time' to ask the 'questions' he's at the helm.	5/8	David Dimbleby
3	It's good to keep in touch and it's all thanks to him.	9/6/4	Alexander Graham Bell
4	Jeeves was his dogsbody.	6/7	Bertie Wooster
5	At the front in the Battle of Jericho.	6	Joshua
6	Cleared Wimbledon Common and the charts in 1974.	3/7	The Wombles
7	A 20 th century mother of two kings.	5/4	Queen Mary
8	His Rocket wasn't designed for the 5 th November	6/10	George Stephenson
9	Stood by her man before the divorce.	5/7	Tammy Wynette
10	Gets a 'wreath' at each end of what he started.	— 3/5/4	Sir Henry Wood
11	A Royal lady suspected of being in her prime.	5/6	Helen Mirren
12	Weighty golden girl of 2006 with Celtic connections.	— 8/6	Michaela Breeze
13	These popular insects emerged from a cave.	3/7	The Beatles
14	A goon on the highway.	5/7	Harry Secombe
15	Gnasher was his canine friend.	6/3/6	Dennis the Menace
16	Flowing on his feet and likes a bit of spice.	5/7	David Beckham
17	What a carry on for this dolly bird with the naughty laugh.	7/7	Barbara Windsor
18	He did not pass by on the other side.	3/4/9	The Good Samaritan
19	His masterpiece is popular in advent.	— 6/9/6	George Frederick Handel
20	Has a Caribbean and French connection.	— 6/2/7	Daphne du Maurier
21	Once a graceful mover but always tired.	5/5	Wayne Sleep
22	He created the link to this sunny county.	8/7/6	Isambard Kingdom Brunel
23	When this duo visited a theatre it wasn't to do woodwork.	3/10	The Carpenters
24	Had seven little friends with descriptive names.	4/5	Snow White
25	An archaeologist and soldier who worked in the sand.	— 8/2/6	Lawrence of Arabia
26	Nice to see you dancing.	5/7	Bruce Forsyth
27	Protected Arthur from her indoors.	— 6/8	Dennis Waterman
28	Did this Parisian bell ringer get the hump?	9	Quasimodo
29	The weather on his feast stays far as long as Lent.	2/7	St. Swithin
30	Before the 'spell-check' when you needed a spelling he was the man.	6/7	Samuel Johnson
31	5 annual awards and this scientist's invention proved to be explosive.	6/5	Alfred Nobel
32	An actor with a sting who enforces the law in a hot sounding village.	4/7	John Nettles
33	A bit of old mould helped this chap discover a cure.	3/9/7	Sir Alexander Fleming
34	Is it time to get these celebs' out of here?	3/3/3	Ant and Dec
35	The latest, 3-3. 2-2. 4+3.	— 6/5	Daniel Craig
36	A new 'sweetheart' in tune with the red dragon.	9/7	Katherine Jenkins
37	A minty young Scot hoping for major success on British pasture.	6/6	Andrew Murray
38	A 'doctor' known for bad behaviour.	6/6	Martin Clunes
39	The rocket goes to pot every time.	6/9	Ronnie O'Sullivan
40	Didn't like the meals at school, but was good at tables.	5/6	Jamie Oliver
41	Didn't have a penny for a pie.	6/5	Simple Simon
42	Definitely not 'weakest' when she puts her 'points of view'.	4/8	Anne Robinson
43	Would this pop stars namesake approve of her lifestyle?	7	Madonna
44	Trinity of house keeper, nanny and father.	— 3/9	Mrs Doubtfire
45	An old Cornish station reflects his life.	3/4/8	Sir John Betjeman
46	Green fingered with a feathered connection in a round about way.	4/10	Alan Titchmarsh
47	She is into news, helps fight crime and tells a 'true tale'.	5/5	Fiona Bruce
48	This top batsman doesn't waltz around like his namesake Johann.	6/7	Andrew Strauss
49	When the bird sneezed, he lost a packet.	7/8	Bernard Matthews
50	This metallic woman is past her political prime.	8/8	Margaret Thatcher